Alumni Association Directory

The Alumni Directory appears in this issue. It lists the active members of the Alumni Association.

Only those who have paid their dues for the current year are included, which accounts for its length, or lack of it.

One value of the Association flows from its function of keeping Alumni informed of the whereabouts and doings of each other. That function can the better be served with more members on the active rolls.

We hope to publish another and a more complete Directory later. Please, therefore, encourage others to come into the fold. Spread the news that all former students are eligible.

Coach Stagg Is Honored

Coach Amos Alonzo Stagg was elected president of the Pacific Coast and Rocky Mountain Football Coaches Association at a meeting of the association in Los Angeles recently.

Extension Director

Dr. G. A. Werner, professor of History and Political Science, has been recently appointed Director of Extension classes at Pacific. Dr. Werner is also Dean of the Summer Sessions and directs all Pacific tours. Extension classes are offered this semester in Turlock and Sacramento.

Little Theatre Has Revolving Stage

A double unit revolving stage is the newest addition to Pacific Little Theatre equipment. It was designed by Arthur Farey '29, Business Manager and Assistant Director of the Little Theatre, and built by him with the assistance of Frank Wilbur and Pierson Tuttle, junior and sophomore students, respectively.

It consists of two sixteen-foot turntables set side by side and pieces that fit in with the circles to make a new stage floor seven inches above the present one.

Each turntable carries a side wall and half of the back wall of each set.
As many as three sets may be set at once with this system. Complete set changes can be made in less than one minute. While action is taking place on an exposed set, the unexposed parts may be reset.

This is the first double unit revolving stage used upon a western stage.
There are several single unit revolving stages on the Coast, all in large professional theatres.

Dance Drama, April 26, 28

The fifth annual Dance Drama will be given in the College Auditorium on the evenings of April 26 and 28. The dances, all original, are presented by the natural dancing classes and members of Junior and Senior Orchestras, honorary dancing society, under the direction of Miss Mae Shaw, professor of physical education. Proceeds of the affair will be added to the Swimming Pool Fund.

PACIFIC SUMMER SESSION

A five week summer session with classes five days a week will open at Pacific, June 25. Classes will be lengthened so as to meet the requirements of a regular six week session. Courses will be offered in all departments.

Drama activities at this session will be the most complete on the Coast.
The Little Theatre staff, headed by De Marcus Brown '23, will be augmented by a guest director of national prominence. Instruction will be offered by these leaders in direction, stagecraft, physical expression, puppetry, and eurythmics and dance. Productions will be presented in the new outdoor theatre.

Sessions at Dillon Beach

Summer courses in biology will be offered only at the Pacific Marine Laboratory on the coast of Marin County, California, where there is an abundance of material for field and laboratory studies. A maximum of eight units may be secured in four or in eight week periods. Special bulletins explaining the Pacific Marine Laboratory may be secured from the office of the College Registrar.

Summer Tours

President Tully C. Knoles will direct the Pacific tour to Europe this summer. Because of his rare genius for interpretation, the members of the party will glean a wealth of information about things historical, legendary, religious, literary, social, and political.
Miss Grace Carter will assist Dr.
Knoles. Courses will be offered in "Contemporary Europe," "International Relations," and "Historical Landmarks."

A trip to Alaska is being scheduled as the 1934 post session. The party will go by rail to Seattle and will continue from there by steamer via the inland passage to Skagway. Inland sightseeing tours will be made by automobiles and trains from Skagway.
Courses in education, geology, and history will be offered.

Women Debaters Go East

Two senior women students will represent Pacific at the Pi Kappa Delta national debating tournament at Lexington, Kentucky, April 2-7. The debaters are Miriam Gealey of Stockton and Jeanet Manning of Ogden, Utah, winners of the Pacific Southwest debate tournament in December.

Among the schools which they will debate enroute to the convention and return are University of Nevada at Reno; Weber College at Ogden; Washington University at St. Louis; College of the City of Detroit at Detroit; University of Buffalo at Buffalo; Boston University at Boston; Radcliffe College, Cambridge; Columbia University at New York City; New York University at New York City; Emory University, Atlanta, Georgia; Tulane University at New Orleans; Baylor College at Belton, Texas; and University of New Mexico at Alburquerque.

ALUMNI COLLEGE

What is an Alumni College? You can obtain the complete answer to that question on April 28. All that is necessary is to "come back" to the campus.

The date has been fixed for a Saturday in order to accommodate the largest possible number. Part of the day will be spent attending classes, again. There will be no examinations, though. Lectures on current problems by Pacific Professors and discussions by those who wish to take part are included in the plan.

Alumni and former students are eligible to attend the sessions, and may bring guests. Active members of the Alumni Association will not be charged a registration fee.

The two morning sessions will be devoted to Elementary Education and Secondary Education.

At noon, there will be a luncheon, cafeteria style, in Anderson Hall. President Tully C. Knoles will speak there on a timely topic.

The afternoon sessions will convene at 2 o'clock. They will include:

SOCIAL SCIENCE

Phoebe O'Connor White '21, presiding

"The Failure of Disarmament" Dr. G. A. Werner

"Less Government or Better?"
Dr. Malcolm Eiselen

EDUCATION

Birdie Mitchell Esser '27, presiding

"Psychological Effects of Motion Pictures on Children"
Dr. J. William Harris

"What Facing Facts Would Do to Our Schools"

Prof. Marie Breniman

"New Books"

A Cappella Choir Tour

An A Cappella Choir trip through southern San Joaquin Valley is being announced tentatively by Dean Charles M. Dennis, choir director. He is scheduling engagements throughout the week of May 13.

Dr. Bonner Leaves Pacific

Dr. Arthur Bonner, a member of the Pacific faculty since 1918, resigned this month to become pastor of the United Methodist Church in Yuba City. Dr. Bonner was head of the English department for many years.

Guest Professor

Dr. Dwight C. Baker, Dean of the Modesto Junior College, who is giving an evening course at Pacific.

Modesto Dean Lectures at Pacific

"The Modern Orient" is being offered this semester on Tuesday evenings by Dr. Dwight C. Baker, dean of the Modesto Junior College. Dr. Baker's experience in China both as an instructor and as social service director of the Rockefeller Foundation, gives him an exceptionally fine background for this course.

Dr. Baker first went to Teintsin as an instructor after receiving his M.A. degree from the University of California in 1915. He served as secretary of the Foyer du Soldat at Saissons, France, in 1918, but returned to China in 1919. He was supervisor of schools and director of famine relief in Taian, North China, until 1924, when he became head of the English Department at Shantung Christian University, Tsinan, North China.

Dean Baker has held positions at Long Beach Junior College, San Francisco State Teachers College, and the University of California, where he received his Ph.D. in 1927. During his three years there he was University Examiner and Assistant Professor of History.

Journalism Fraternity at Pacific

Alpha Delta Chapter of Alpha Phi Gamma, national honorary co-educational journalistic fraternity, was installed at Pacific December 9. Other chapters in California are located at San Francisco, Fresno, Los Angeles, Santa Barbara and the University of Redlands.

Ten students and two faculty members were installed as charter members. Two semesters of work on college publications and high scholastic rating are requirements for eligibility.

SPRING FOOTBALL PRACTICE

More than 60 varsity football players are expected to be in uniform when spring grid practice starts March 6. This exceeds any previous spring turnout and is indicative of the increased development of football at Pacific since the arrival of Coach Amos Alonzo Stagg.

Last spring, which was considered a good year, Coach Stagg had difficulty in keeping the squad above the 40 mark and many of these were scrub players who were unfitted for stiff varsity competition. Also, many of the regulars were so busy with track that they took only casual interest in spring football.

There will be no track activity to detract from the gridiron activities this year. Many of the players are familiar with the Stagg system after playing with the Pacific varsity and freshmen teams last fall, and they will be prepared to take more advanced work.

Alumni Cooperate

Alumni are commended highly by the graduate manager and coaches for the fine work they have done in contacting men of football caliber. Many of the junior college transfers who will join in the March and April practice, have registered as a result of the efforts of alumni.

The heavy spring practice will be largely preparation for the opening game with the University of Southern California Trojans at Los Angeles, September 29.

Pacific Junior College

A Junior College division will be inaugurated at Pacific next Fall, according to tentative plans just announced by President Tully C. Knoles. Entrance requirements will be the same as those for all state junior colleges. Separate classes will be scheduled for the junior college students who may be transferred to regular college classes if and when they demonstrate their fitness for such advancement. Certificates will be issued at appropriate exercises upon completion of the two year course.

Dramatic Critic Lauds Pacific Alumni

Several Pacific Alumni have been favorably criticized recently by George C. Warren, dramatic critic of the San Francisco Chronicle. Mr. Warren has observed them both on the Pacific Little Theatre stage and in their respective communities.

Hazel Glaister Robertson '24 has been mentioned by him frequently in her work as director of the Children's Theatre of Palo Alto. Her new play, "Seven Come Eleven," which was produced there recently, was considered by Mr. Warren as "the best thing Mrs. Robertson has done, either as director or author."

"An enormous crowd," he said, attended the production of Mrs. Robertson's Christmas pageant, "Star of the Sea," which she directed also. She was assisted then by Dorothy Lea Ketman '20, who directed a choir of seventy children. Mr. Warren said: "The performance had reverence and dignity, surprising qualities considering the youth of the children taking part. It was a distinct credit to Mrs. Robertson and her associates."

In Mr. Warren's review of "The Coming of Arthur," produced by the San Jose High School, he wrote: "Eleanor V. Short '23 had charge of the choral music and contributed a charming song, 'The Virgin's Lullaby' of which she is composer and lyricist. * * * There were stateliness and majesty in the processions of vested choristers, who sang a cappella * * *. The choir was well trained. * * *"

Mr. Warren frequently attends the Pacific Little Theatre productions and has given a great deal of praise to De Marcus Brown '23 both as a director and an actor. Among other alumni whom he has given favorable criticism are: Lucille Threlfall Crane '29, Georgia Smith '26, Elroy Fulmer '26, and Peter Walline Knoles '25.

Spring Oratorio, May 6

Verdi's Manzoni Requiem will be presented as the annual spring oratorio May 6 at 3 p.m. in the College Auditorium. Eighty members of the Modesto Junior College Glee Clubs will combine with the Pacific chorus,
